Said Deed of Trust having been assigned by the said E. L. Poindexter on the 14th day of March.

The Sun has fairly samed the hearty hatred of rascals, frands and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that barred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. The Sux will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people. The Sux does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its reading specific to the present disjointed condition of parties intelligence of whatever in the wield will be considered the property will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in the country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movement of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a discovery section of the Re The undersigned b lieves the title to the above described property to be good, but will convey such title as is vested in him under said Deed of Trust.
